REGISTRATION IN WILLIAMSON COUNTY -About four hundred voters have been registered in Williamson county, under the Franchise law. The registration is closed, to be opened for one day for each meeting of the County Court, which the law provides shall be done.

COURTMARTIAL .- A courtmartial will issemble to-day for the trial of Brevet Col. E. H. LEIR, of the Fifth Regular Cavalry, for disobedience of orders. The charges are supposed to refer to the pursuit of HAR-PER, last spring. Laus reported the capture of HARPER, and his subsequent escape. Major General W. P. CARLIN is President of the Court.

VERY DISORDERLY .- MARTIN CONWAY, n company with another soldier, on last Saturday night, entered the saloon of Mr ELLISON, on the Lebanon Pike, and asked for something to drink. Mr. E. refused to sell liquor to them, because they were soldiers, whereupon Conway drew his bay onet and attempted to intimidate him, threatening him if he did not immediately give them the whisky. Mr. ELLISON called for the police and had CONWAY arrested, the other soldier running away. Recorder WILKINSON sent the defendant to the work house for thirty-two days. A MOVEMENT is on foot by the legal fraternity, to memoralize the Legislature at its next session, to change the time of holding the essions of the Circuit Court, in order that they might not conflict with the sessions of the other courts. IN STORE.-R. H. THOMPSON has in store a large and well selected assortment of gentlemen's furnishing goods, just arrived from the Eastern market. He has everything the public desire, and, aided by his clever assistant, Mr. J. ELY, will be pleased to wait on all who may favor him with a call. OLD THEATRE. - The re-appearance las night of HARRY LANGBON, was warmly ap plauded by his host of friends and admirers. The attendance was large and imposing, and of a character to encourage the management in their anticipation of a successful season.
